This schedule does not apply to courses taught through Continuing Studies.

 Examinations are scheduled according to the day and hour of the first meeting of the course each week and held in the regular assigned meeting room. Final assessments are required in all undergraduate courses. (See the Undergraduate Bulletin for rules on exceptions.) No examinations (except for laboratory sections) may be held at a time other than that specified in the general schedule except after first petitioning the dean and with the advance approval of the provost. No examination time can be changed after it has been announced. No instructor shall give a quiz within one week (five class days) preceding the final examination period. Assignments which will be considered a part of the final exam should be clearly announced in the course syllabus, and should be due on the date of the examination. No examination may be held later than 7:00 p.m. Final examinations should ordinarily cover two hours but should not exceed three hours.

Instructors teaching classes scheduled for Common Hour Exams shall request the students in these classes to report to them any conflict with any other examination not later than Wednesday, November 5, 2008. In case of a conflict, the regularly scheduled exam will take precedence over the Common Hour Exam.

A student who has three final examinations scheduled by the Office of the University Registrar within a twenty-four hour period may petition his or her dean for permission to have one of the scheduled examinations rescheduled. In the event that one of the scheduled examinations is a Common Hour Exam, that examination is the one to be rescheduled. In all cases in which an examination is to be rescheduled, the instructor may reschedule that examination during the final examination period, but not later than the end of the following semester. Any petition for a change in the examination schedule because of the "three exams in a twenty-four hour" rule must be made to your dean's office before the first day of the final examinations.
